SABEY

Elmo A. Ford is a lifetime resident of Wallsburg, born September 18, 1909, a son of Alfred Ford and Molinda Boren.

937

He attended elementary school at Wallsburg, graduated from Wasatch High School at Heber, and attended Brigham Young University in Provo.

On February 2, 1934, he married Reta Sabey, daughter of James Edgar and Jenette Davis Sabey, and they have been blessed with four children: Nelda, Harold, Carolyn and Howard.

Elmo worked for the Wallsburg Ranch and Cattle Co. when he wasn't helping his father on the farm. He then began raising turkeys, continuing for 25 years.

He was a member of the city council for some time. He served as bishop of Wallsburg about six years and was a member of the High Priests' Quorum of Wasatch Stake. He now is Sunday School superintendent of Wallsburg Ward.

He has served as secretary of the Wasatch Soil Conservation District for about 12 years, still holding that position. He was president of the Wallsburg Telephone Co. at the time it was changed to the Mountain States Telephone Co. Elmo is now mayor of Wallsburg. He owns and operates the Elmo Ford Mercantile and is engaged in farming.
